Dear Joseph,

I wanted to contact you to thank you for the healing session you held at [REDACTED]. I attended and received the most amazing healing of a neck and back injury. I always receive incredible gifts from the Universe at [REDACTED] so it doesn't surprise me that I got such benefits.... what is surprising is how this experience differed. I normally enjoy the session so much that I never want it to end; I get caught up in the magic of it and feel fantastic! I hesitate to tell you that I left your session feeling less than spiritual and connected to the Universe, lol.... sounds awful but the session was so physically uncomfortable for me that I wasn't sure I'd survive it (lol)...even stranger is that I KNEW IMMEDIATELY that the second I have a chance to be treated by you and your didge healing, I'd sign up in an instant. Your therapy reached incredible depths for me. Even beyond healing my neck (which, by the way, has not had this range of motion since before my car accident 12 yrs ago!).

I also realized during the session that I had been sexually abused as a child. Without elaborating on it I can tell you that the message I got was that he didn't value me and that I need to value myself. I was for the first time able to acknowledge that I was sexually abused and sat with my notebook during the down time writing so quickly in words that weren't my own. What is most strange is that, and I believe it is because of your session; I have been able to come to "grips" with the abuse much faster and more gently than I ever EVER would have imagined I could do. I still have a lot of unanswered questions and am working to break some emotional patterns but I feel like the hold it had on me is different and that I can be objective...in fact, that's a good way to say it. I feel objective about it and not as emotionally involved as I guess I would have normally expected to feel. It's a very strange thing, to have come to that HUGE of a realization and even be able to function let alone thrive so shortly afterward. I can only thank you and Bonnie and the amazing healing the combination of the sessions gave me.

Please add me to your emailing list and send any updates on when you might be returning to Pittsburgh. Thank you again for your healing. God bless.
